Feel Beautiful Today Reaches a Milestone of 1,000 Boxes of Love Donated

ALPHARETTA, GA (August 22, 2012). Feel Beautiful Today®, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization designed to bring encouragement, hope, and love to women affected by cancer. Many hands work together to fulfill this mission. Two years ago, the founder Bivi Franco wished simply to bring a smile to a friend and honor to her aunt. From its humble beginnings, FBT has grown to benefit numerous women in both the receiving and giving of unique pieces of jewelry.

This circle of hope begins with volunteers from the community who wish to become involved in bringing light to women affected by cancer, flows into those women who receive the Boxes of Love, and is completed through patients and survivors who desire to give back by creating pieces for others. It is fitting therefore that through a jewelry-making workshop held at Wellstar Kennestone, FBT reached the completion of 1,000 Boxes of Love!

To date 1,041 Boxes of Love have been donated. This is a joyous occasion for the volunteers, patients, and survivors who created the pieces and the 1,041 women who received them as well.

FBT moves forward with many opportunities for the community to become involved, lend a hand, and continue to reach out in hope and love. Please consider assisting us in creating another 1,000 pieces! www.feelbeautifultoday.org
