Feel Beautiful Today Partners with Dekalb Medical for Their Annual Tea
For Women Affected by Cancer

Marietta, Georgia – February 10, 2012 Delicate china, elegant luncheon trays, dainty sweets, and vibrant floral arrangements all in pinks and burgundies, greet the guests of Dekalb Medical. The stage is set for the Eighth Annual Tea celebrating women affected by cancer. While the enchanting surroundings and even voices united through inspirational songs might seemingly captivate any spectator, it is the sisterhood amongst these strong women celebrating life that will clutch the heart. These courageous individuals gather together each year on the Tuesday after Valentine’s Day to rejoice and remember. For much like the exquisite china...life is truly fragile.

Dekalb Medical presents the attendees with a lovely hat to wear as part of the fellowship. In addition, this year they have partnered with Feel Beautiful Today (FBT) to give a “Box of Love”. Inside these carefully crafted boxes are unique handmade jewelry pieces. The original designs are created by artist, Biviana Franco, founder of FBT. Each bracelet is assembled by community volunteers who come together to help encourage victims of cancer and their family members. The cherished tokens express hope, love, and remind the recipient that they are a beautiful creation.
