Narrative Exhibit
by Feel Beautiful Today

A Photographic Narrative Exhibit

It is a way to tell a story through a picture, where the words come to life as opposed to remaining emotionless. This exhibit serves as a way to share a message and express feelings. It is a way to display the beauty behind every patient while carefully exposing the reality of their situation.

Redefining the Concept of Beauty

Feel Beautiful Today

FBT's Purpose Through This Exhibit

Our desire as a non-profit begins by humanizing the experience for cancer patients and improving their quality of life through programs that promote creativity and emotional expression. This type of exhibit can evoke emotions in the viewer and promote self-confidence for every cancer patient and survivor. This exhibit also serves as an avenue for social connectedness with people around patients and community.

the Journey

Patients Experience

This exhibit will serve as a reminder to each patient that cancer cannot and should not define them as a human being. We also aim to help patients view their journey as a way to grow learn, inspire, and share wisdom. It serves as a reminder of how beautiful they are inside and out by redefining the concept of beauty for them and those around them.
